

John Gordanier

Office

Department of Economics
420 Moore School of Business
University of South Carolina
Columbia, SC 29205
Phone (803)777-4943 (work)

Home

821 Beltline Blvd
Columbia, SC 29205
(803)404-8741 (mobile)
E-Mail: jgordanier@moore.sc.edu

Education

Ph.D.	Economics	University of Wisconsin-Madison	2006
M.S.	Economics	University of Wisconsin-Madison	2002
B.S.	Economics	University of Missouri-Columbia	2000
B.S.	Statistics	University of Missouri-Columbia	2000

Dissertation Title: The Influence of Firm Structure on Wages and Careers
Major Advisor: John Kennan

Academic Positions

Visiting Assistant Professor, Amherst College 2006-2007
Clinical Assistant Professor, University of South Carolina 2007-present

Published Papers

John Gordanier and Miao, C. "On the Duration of Technology Licensing,"
International Journal of Industrial Organization, November 2011.

Working Papers

"The Division of Labor, Firm Size and Employee Learning"
"Self-Selection and Screening in Law Firms"
"Up or Over? The Role of Permanent Associates in Law Firms"

Research Interests

Labor Economics, Personnel Economics, Industrial Organization, Law & Economics

Teaching & Advising

Courses taught: Principles of Economics (Microeconomics and Macroeconomics), Labor Economics, Industrial Organization, Law and Economics.
Undergraduate and masters research advisement: advisor for senior thesis projects in the fields of: personnel economics, law and economics, and labor economics.

Professional Organizations and Service

Advisory panel member of The Working Group on Law Firms 2007-2011
Member of American Economic Association, Southern Economic Association, Society of Labor Economics
Member of the John R. Commons Executive Committee 2003-2005.

